

Center Planning Chart
Sample

Lesson Focus: Library Orientation		This Week	Mini-Lesson?
Location	Center
Coffee table	Word Work	Fiction/non-fiction word sort
Round table 1 by color printer	Independent Reading	Tables and chairs empty for student readers
Round table 2 by color printer	Bookmarks	5-finger rule bookmarks for students to color
3-foot space at end of computer stations	Pocket Chart	Fiction alphabetical order cards	✓
Rectangular table	Puzzle center	I Spy "ABC" puzzle
Bench by biography section	Read with Someone	Basket with joke books and sunglasses
Coffee table	Word Work	Fiction/non-fiction word sort
Round table 1 by color printer	Independent Reading	Tables and chairs empty for student readers

ENGAGE YOUR STUDENTS!

"I will use this resource for years to come! Centers are so valuable and students LOVE them!"

(Leeann Denham's Library)

"Great resource for anyone wanting to implement centers in the library. Thank you!"

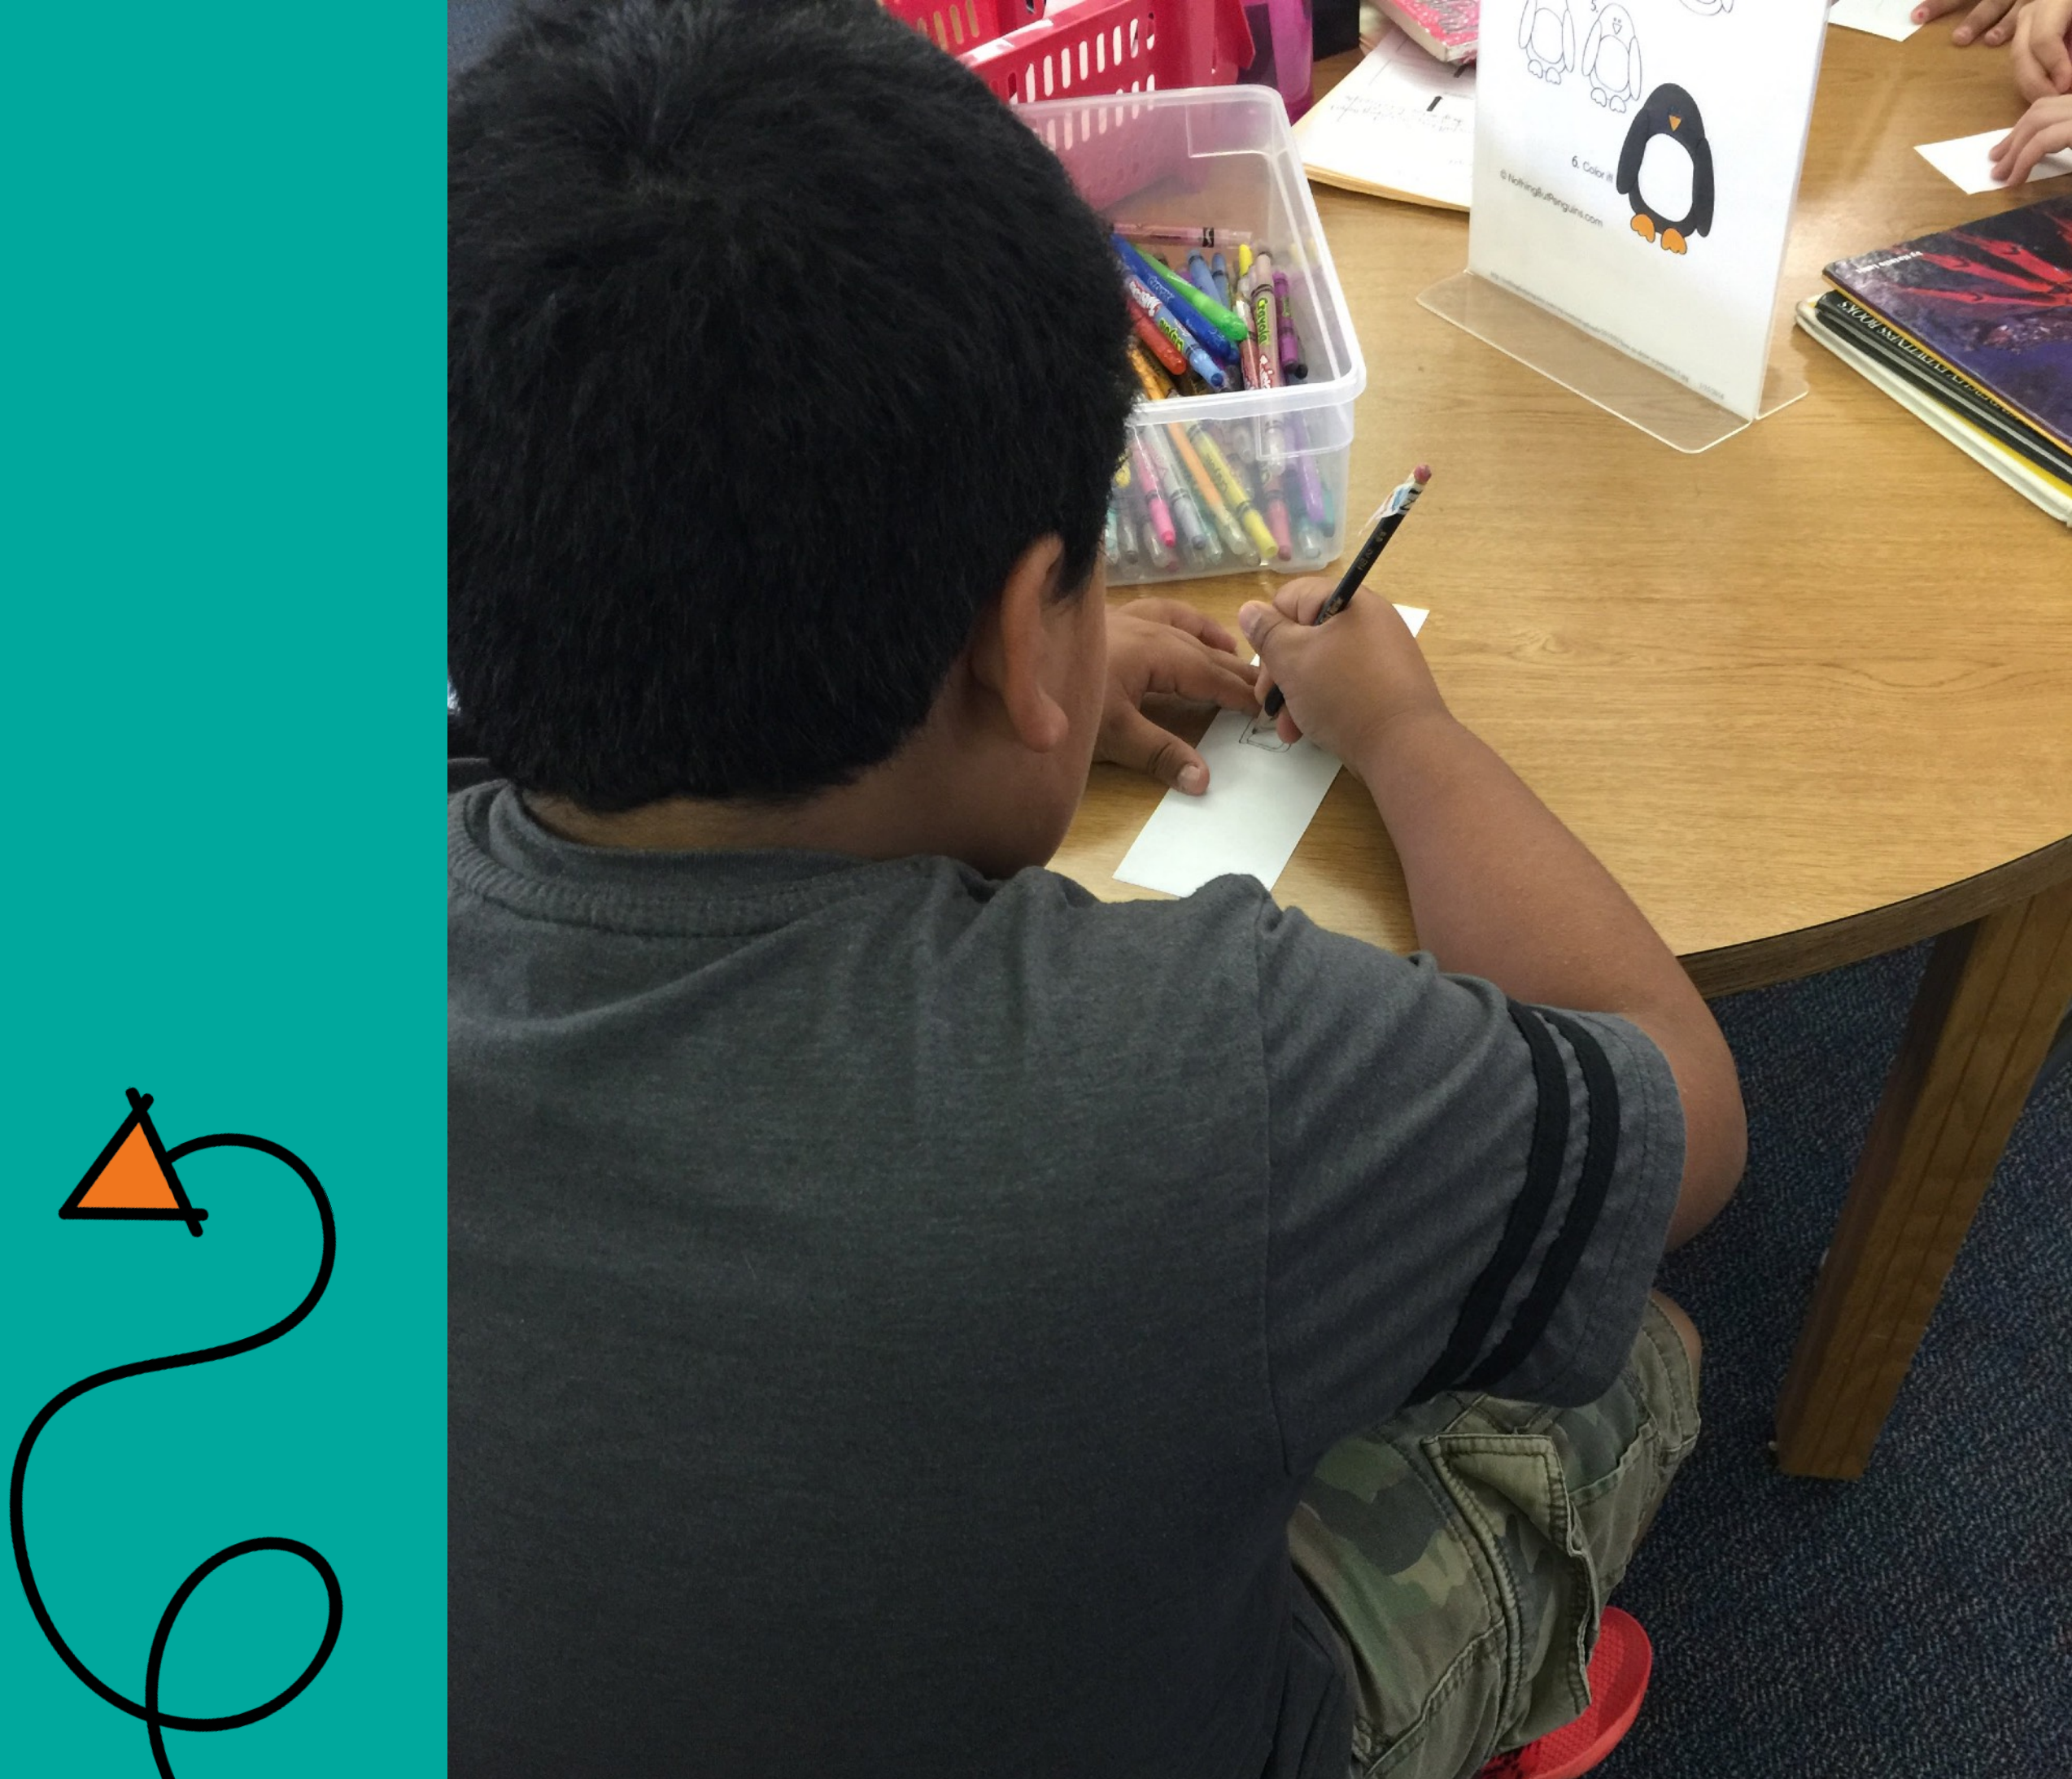

(LYNEZ H.)

"Such a valuable resource!"

(Janna C.)

"This is a fantastic resource! Gave me lots of ideas for how to implement centers in my library."

(Morgan G.)

CLICK VIDEO PREVIEW TO SEE MORE!